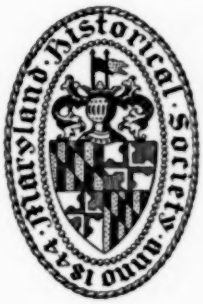
OF MICHIGAN
MAY 2 1963
PERIODICAL
READING ROOM

MARYLAND HISTORICAL MAGAZINE

PUBLISHED BY

THE MARYLAND HISTORICAL SOCIETY



VOLUME LVII

BALTIMORE
1962

F
176
.M39

CONTENTS OF VOLUME LVII

	Page
Henrietta Szold and the Russian Immigrant School, Alexandra Lee Levin	1
Edward Thornton to James Bland Burges: Letters Written from Baltimore in the Eighteenth Century. Edited by S. W. Jackman,	16
Maryland Medicine in the Seventeenth Century. George B. Scriven,	29
Sidelights,	47, 155, 259, 371
Reviews of Recent Books,	56, 163, 268, 375
Books Received,	68, 172, 389
Notes and Queries,	70, 173, 280, 390
Contributors,	73, 175, 284, 397
James W. Foster. Richard Walsh,	75
Sam Chase, "Disturber." Francis F. Beirne,	78
The State in the Maryland Economy, 1776-1807. Mary Jane Dowd, 90.	229
Meade's Pipe Creek Line. Frederic Shriver Klein,	133
John Adams' Correspondence with Hezekiah Niles: Some Notes and a Query. L. H. Butterfield,	150
Samuel Chase and the Annapolis Paper War. Neil Strawser,	177
Politics of Crisis: The Maryland Elections of 1788-89. Dorothy M. Brown,	195
The Rectory of St. Paul's Parish, Baltimore: an Architectural History. Howard E. Wooden,	210
Lord Francis Napier's Journal of the Burgoyne Campaign. Edited by S. Sydney Bradford,	285
The Origins of Maryland's Middle Class in the Colonial Aristocratic Pattern. James High,	334
Revolution or Reform in 1836: Maryland's Preface to the Dorr Rebellion. A. Clarke Hagensick,	346
Found: One Anchor from H.M.S. DICTATOR. Frank J. Swartz and James Green,	367

ILLUSTRATIONS

		PAGE
Baltimore in the 1890's: Charles Street, looking north from German, now Redwood, Street,	Cover,	March
Baltimore Street, Looking West from the Adams Express Building, c. 1890. From Illustrated Baltimore: the Monumental City,	betw.	6- 7
Newly Arrived Immigrants in Baltimore in the 1880's. From Baltimore . . . a Picture History. Md. Hist. Soc., commentary by Francis F. Beirne (N.Y., 1958),	betw.	6- 7
Extraordinary Appearances in The Heavens, and on Earth. Augs. 2nd, 1797. Watercolor by B. H. Latrobe (p. 173),	Cover,	June
James W. Foster, (1890-1962),	opp.	75
Legend: The Pipe Creek Line, June 30, 1863,		134
Rectory of St. Paul's Parish, 1801. Painting by Thomas Ruckel. Courtesy, Bendann Art Gallery, Baltimore,	Cover,	Sept.
Fig. 1. View of St. Paul's Rectory, 1959,	opp.	210
Fig. 2. 1801 Atlas,		211
Fig. 3. Plat of 1827. Courtesy, Bureau of Building Construction, Baltimore,		212
Fig. 4. Plat of 1833, Courtesy, Bureau of Building Construction,		214
Fig. 5. Plan of Rectory as Originally Completed in 1791,		215
Fig. 6. Rear View, Showing Octagon, Porch, and North Extension of 1827-29,	opp.	218
Fig. 7. Central Hallway Showing Elliptical Archway and Staircase in Octagonal Bay. Courtesy, The Baltimore Sunday Magazine,	opp.	218
Fig. 8. Ground Floor, 1959,		223
Fig. 9. Central Doorway, 1959,	opp.	225
Fig. 10. The Palladian Window, 1959,	opp.	225
Water color painting "Action on St. Leonard's Creek, June 6, 1814." Photo courtesy, the Mariner's Museum, Newport News, Va.,	Cover,	Dec.
Illustration from Horatio Rogers, A Journal Kept in Canada . . . by Lieut. James M. Hadden, Roy. Art . . . (Albany, 1884), facing p. 90,	opp.	288
Fig. 1. Anchor from the H.M.S. Dictator immediately after being washed clear of encased mud. Photo by F. Schwartz,	betw.	368-369
Fig. 2. Anchor ring, 1'7" outside diameter, showing excellent preserved condition of the rope and cloth overlay. Photo by. J. Green,	betw.	368-369
Fig. 3. Shank of anchor on which appeared the engraved letters "Rec. Chat." Photo by J. Green,	betw.	368-369
Fig. 4. Stock illustrating the inscribed letters "Dictator," the method of marking the weight of the anchor "6 x 3 x 24" and the broad arrows, a sign of British Government property. Photo by J. Schwartz,	betw.	368-369
Fig. 5. Profile of 64 gun H.M.S. Dictator. Photo courtesy, the Mariner's Museum, Newport News, Va.,	betw.	368-369